9 July 2022

Objective

The Terms of Reference establish the agreed roles and functions for the Walkers Lake Advisory Group (the Advisory Group), both collectively and individually to ensure the Advisory Group is governed responsibly and there is a level of respect for each member's opinions and views.

The Advisory Group will provide recommendations to the Northern Grampians Shire Council based on the following key areas and in terms of the Walkers Lake Management Plan (the plan):

- Ongoing sustainability of Walkers Lake as a recreation lake and how it will continue to meet the needs of the community including accessibility
- Infrastructure – Needs and costs associated with relevant development if recommended and ongoing operational costs
- Limitations of the site in sustaining use associated with recreational activities
- Risks – Assessment, review and management strategies
- Water supply including costs of supply and management
- Consideration of ongoing management in consideration to land use, biodiversity and cultural heritage values.

Background

Council brings the community and relevant stakeholders together in the form of the Advisory Group to provide input into discussion on and implementation of the plan.

Members are engaged to implement outcomes of the plan through direct involvement including volunteering activities and/or recommending Council to action specific activities. The Advisory Group can also recommend external organisations to undergo projects on behalf of council.

The Advisory Group is in the form of a working group with capacity to investigate and to co-opt expertise as needed and to make recommendations to Council.

The Advisory Group shall consist of representatives of the community and organisations with a recreational water focus, educational values and that have consideration of related biodiversity and cultural heritage values.

Purpose

The purpose of the Advisory Group is to provide Council with advice and recommendations on the implementation of the plan and ongoing management of the reserve.

Membership

The Advisory Group will comprise the following members:-

- One Councillor (who will chair meetings)
- Up to seven community members
- One Council officer (who will be the minute taker and have no voting rights)
- Up to four invited government and non-government stakeholders which may include but not be limited to GWMWater, VR Fish, Dja Dja Wurrung, DELWP, Landcare and Department of Education. The determination of this membership will be decided by council in consultation with the Advisory Group.

Terms of Appointment

Community Members will apply for selection and will be appointed to the Advisory Group for a term of up to four years. Council has the capacity to advertise for the replacement of the expired position and can accept re-application from the expirée if that person so desires to re-apply.

Invited Government and Non-Government stakeholders will be invited at the discretion of council and through consultation with the Advisory Group and invitee organisations.

Although individual members may be selected because of their role in key organisations, they serve on the Advisory Group in their individual capacity. If due to job changes or attrition, the Advisory Group loses links to an important network or constituency, the Advisory Group will prioritise filling this gap during the next round of recruitment.

Conditions and limitations

Any conflicts of interest of any representative in the Advisory Group must be disclosed.

Council's relationship with the Advisory Group – Council will value and respect the input and advice provided by the Advisory Group. Council will use it, together with information from other sources, to inform its practices, policies and procedures. Council will not necessarily be bound by decisions of the Advisory Group, and retains the right to prioritise initiatives and recommendations.

Selection Criteria – Council will seek to appoint people with experience, knowledge and understanding of local issues with the capacity to provide recommendations to council on the sustainability of Walkers Lake as a recreational lake. Accordingly, the following criteria will be used to evaluate appointments to the Advisory Group:

1. Possess sound knowledge of the local area and recent involvement in the local community.
2. An ability to represent issues impacting on the local community in relation to the need for a recreational lake and to work in consultation with the Advisory Group to develop strategies to address this.
3. Demonstrate relevant experience in the management of recreational lakes and have an understanding of biodiversity and cultural heritage values.
4. Previous experience in working with committees or groups will be well regarded but is not essential.

Selection Process - The selection process will be as follows:

- Expressions of interest or applications will be sought widely in the community including media.
- Should there be more applicants than required to fill vacancies; Council may seek further information from the applicants in determining their suitability for appointment to the Advisory Group.
- The final decision for selection will be determined by council at the earliest available council meeting.
- This selection process will also be followed for replacement of existing group members that have resigned their position during their term.

Termination of members

An individual's membership can be terminated, although this must be for a valid reason (such as misconduct, harassment or bullying) and must be approved by council at a council meeting. Under no circumstances do the Advisory Group members (independently or as a group) have the right to terminate an individual's membership. To terminate membership, the following procedure must be followed:

1. The Council may terminate the appointment of member for misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity; or
2. inefficiency or incompetence
Any action by a member which demonstrates that he/she is either unwilling or unable to comply with his/her obligations and responsibilities as set out in the Terms of Reference may constitute misbehaviour and/or inefficiency and, as such, may be grounds for termination of appointment.
3. The member/s concerned must be notified in writing of the termination as well as the reasons at least seven days prior to the next scheduled meeting.

If any member feels that they have had their membership wrongfully terminated, they have the right to appeal to the council, which will arrive at the final resolution of the matter at their absolute discretion.

An individual member can decide to terminate their membership to the group on their own. This should be communicated in writing to the Coordinator Leisure and Recreation by email at ngshire@ngshire.vic.gov.au to ensure that this is recorded should any disputes arise.

Authority/roles and responsibilities

Council will act as convenor for meetings and the Councillor will chair the meetings. The council officer will undertake secretariat duties including preparing agendas, taking minutes, arranging meetings and distribution of material to Advisory Group members.

The Advisory Group has no powers conferred to it by council and is to operate in line with the purpose and Terms of Reference.

Scope and deliverables

Members are engaged to implement outcomes of the plan through direct involvement including volunteering activities and/or recommending council to action specific activities. The Advisory Group can also recommend external organisations to undergo projects on behalf of council.

Resources and constraints

Council allocates an annual budget for the supply of water and other minor maintenance and/or responsibilities to manage the reserve.

Meetings

- Meetings will be held at least six-monthly and during at least pre-summer and post summer periods.
- Quorum: to allow for vacancies that occur during the term of the group, a quorum will be half of the operational membership plus 1(7).
- Proxies
  - (1) An Advisory Group member may appoint another person as his or her proxy to vote and speak on his or her behalf at a general meeting.
  - (2) The appointment of a proxy must be in writing (includes, text, email or letter correspondence).
  - (3) The Advisory Group member appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on his or her behalf, otherwise the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as he or she sees fit.

- If required, the Advisory Group can agree to meetings out of schedule to respond to a particular issue or task.
- The Councillor will chair the Advisory Group to ensure that advice provided by the Advisory Group is presented directly to the level of authority in council where decisions are made.
- The Councillor will have voting rights.
- The council officer does not have voting rights.
- The council officer representative will be determined by the Chief Executive Officer.
- General community members (7) elected to the group will have voting rights.
- Invited members from government and non-government agencies will have voting rights.
- From time to time the Advisory Group may decide that it would be beneficial for council officers from other programs to also attend to address specific areas of interest. Council officers do not have voting rights.
- From time to time the Advisory Group or council may decide that it would be beneficial for other Government and non-government organisations to also attend to address specific areas of interest. These invitees do not have voting rights.

Council support to the Advisory Group – Council will provide assistance and support to the Advisory Group with the resources available to it in order to enable the Advisory Group to effectively undertake its role. In order to assist members of the Advisory Group, council undertakes to provide the following support:

- Secretariat services to the Advisory Group such as minute taking and agenda distribution.
- Meeting agenda and information papers for agenda items will be provided prior to the meeting.

Reporting responsibilities and communication

No formal communication plan has been adopted for the Advisory Group.

Timeframes and review

The term of the Advisory Group is ongoing and at the discretion of council.

The Terms of Reference of the Advisory Group will be reviewed every four years to ensure it remains current with the council's goals, processes, aims and requirements.
