Purpose

Northern Grampians Shire Council recognises that arts and culture enrich communities. Engaging in arts and culture activities builds a sense of community pride and identity, inspires a sense of place, creates a culture of inclusion, celebrates diversity; promotes health and wellbeing and enhances the liveability of the shire. It assists in the economic development of the shire and helps drive visitation to the region.

Background

The adoption of an Arts and Culture Policy by Council is important as it provides the framework for how Council will support and promote arts and culture activities and initiatives in the shire.

Policy

This policy aims to:

- Support to protect and preserve public arts and cultural assets - maintain community assets and the NGSC Historical Assets Register.
- Increase participation and access – supporting projects and activities that are inclusive, accessible, and encourage participation for a wide range of community members.
- Support local creative talent – creating more opportunities to produce and present creative works.
- Deliver wider economic and social impacts – supporting local organisations, businesses, and creatives to collaborate in the design and delivery of projects.
- Strengthen the creative industries – build capacity and support conditions for growth.

Public Art Guidelines 2023

The Public Art Guidelines 2023 are to be read in conjunction with this policy.

Council Plan Objective/Strategy

Responsibilities

The Strategy, Prosperity and Engagement Directorate is responsible for ensuring that the Arts and Culture Policy is implemented, and the Coordinator Community Futures is responsible for the policy to be reviewed every four years.

Stakeholders

This policy applies to Councillors, staff, contractors, and consultants responsible for commissioning, for or on behalf of Northern Grampians Shire Council. The community is directly affected by the policy.

Review

Monitoring and regular assessment of the policy are necessary to ensure the policy remains current with the Council's goals, processes, aims and requirements. Assessment of the policy will be undertaken every four years to align with the Council term to ensure it remains current with the Council's goals, processes, aims and requirements and as a means by which to reduce Council's exposure to risk.

Communication and implementation

The policy will be communicated to all staff through the Electronic Document Records Management System and referred to in induction and/or training. The policy will be available to the community on the Council's website.
